Google Pizza Seminar

Have you ever wondered what it's actually like to be a software engineer?

You can probably imagine part of the job is writing code, but is that it? What else do they do? How much do they interact with people? What tools do they use? What skills do they need that they didn't learn in college?

Join us as we answer these questions and discuss the day-to-day life of a software engineer.

WHEN: Wednesday 3/16

- 4:30 - Pizza
- 5:00 - Tech Talk
- 5:45 - Q&A
