Subject: TOMORROW: Google: Opportunities for engineering students

A message from Google...

Hello, University of Miami students!

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and make it universally accessible and useful. It's an enormous goal to accomplish and we need great people to help us achieve it!

We invite you to come learn about Google and meet some of our 'Googlers' at this exciting event!

Who: All Electrical and Computer Engineering students, but anyone with an interest in software development is welcome!

What: Tech Talk - Sibyl: A system for large scale supervised machine learning

Date: March 18th, 2015

Time: 3:30pm

Location: MEB202

RSVP: click here

We're hiring! We encourage you to apply online now. Check out g.co/SWEgrad and g.co/SWEintern for more details. For all other opportunities, visit google.com/careers/students.

We hope you'll stay in touch with us by following us on Google+ and checking out the Student YouTube channel.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Please see the attached flyer for more information.

Best,

Kendra A. Parks
